

2019 Sid Brown Scholarship Call for Nominations to Attend the 2019 PMBA Annual Conference

Omni Orlando Resort at Championsgate, Orlando, Florida
May 14-17, 2019

Apply for the scholarship or submit a nomination

The PBMA community is vital to building a prosperous future for public media. As an active organization of over 1,000 station managers, finance leaders, human resources professionals, and industry partners, our members lead the business operations of the public media industry. We advance the efficiency, effectiveness, and economics of public media to empower, inform, and connect the community of PMBA professionals, ensuring the success and sustainability of public media for the national audience.

Since 1996, PMBA has offered the Sid Brown Scholarship, awarding the winner travel expenses (hotel and airfare not to exceed $1,000) to the Annual Conference as well as a complimentary registration. The scholarship honors the late Sid Brown, NPR's vice president for finance and administration, who passed away in 1994.

Requirements:

- Applicants must be employed by a public radio or television station and must attend the entire conference. (Note: PMBA membership is not required.)
- Recipient may be asked to participate in a post-conference phone call with the selection committee to discuss his or her experience at the conference.
- Recipient may be asked to write an article, share notes, or create a resource summarizing content learned at the conference.

Criteria considered:

- Your public broadcasting experience.
- How attending the conference content relates to your job.
- The benefit(s) you anticipate by attending the conference.
- Whether your station would not otherwise be represented at the conference.
- Your station's financial circumstances.

Submission:

- Letters of submission must address the requirements and criteria and include a resume.
- The deadline for submissions is Friday, March 1.
- The winner will be notified by early March.

Email submissions to Jenny Wickline at jwickline@mgmtsol.com, or fax to PMBA's attention at (301) 990-9771. Apply today or forward this message to your colleagues who would benefit from the scholarship!
