Public Media Mergers Playbook

Shorenstein Center on Media, Politics and Public Policy

We are entering a new era of journalism in which responsive, civically-minded local newsrooms engage with their communities to provide news and information that matters. Public media is an ally and anchor in the new local journalism landscape.

This Playbook draws on a year of research to highlight one way public media stations and local, digital newsrooms can join forces to provide a new level of local service to their communities. Read more.

6 Remote Work Practices HR Needs to Bring on Site Now

HR Morning

When employees moved home to work, everything changed. But now some remote practices belong in the office, too.

Most adjustments to our work habits were necessary. Some were more practical. And others were genius! Read more.

Pai Says Farewell to FCC; Read His Statement

Radio World

Chairman Ajit Pai issued this statement on departing the Federal Communications Commission today. Pai, a Republican, was named to the FCC by President Obama in 2012 and designated chairman by President Trump in 2017. Earlier he had worked for four years in legal roles in the general counsel office. He departs as President Biden takes office. Read more.
